

Looking Glass Master Certification Course

Join us on Friday July 17th to complete your Looking Glass experience! Attend the master training from 10:00am-1:30pm Pacific and earn your Looking Glass Master Certificate, obtain a certificate of completion, and a unique digital badge for your email signature.

Attorney Scott Lewis, Dr. Van Brunt and Officer Jeff Solomon will spend two 90-minute sessions to finalize your training series and further hone your skills in assessment. You will learn some of the key elements of social media and written threat assessment along with gaining some practical experience in report writing.

Three Case Studies in Looking Glass (10am - 11:30am PST)

Upon signing up for this training, you will be given three case studies to complete. Your results will be graded by one of the course instructors and returned to you with comments and feedback. Each case will include a brief contextual narrative and include details related to social media, written threat and creative writing. To receive feedback from the instructors, the cases must be turned in by Friday July 10th. Cases submitted after this date will be graded and given feedback but may not be returned prior to the course.

Break (11:30am - 12:00pm PST)

Three Case Reports using Looking Glass (12:00pm - 1:30pm PST)

The instructors will provide three reports for each case written from a legal, psychological and law enforcement perspective. Report techniques from each of these areas of expertise will be shared and the intersectionality of these reporting styles will be discussed. Common “dos” and “don’ts” for reporting will be discussed and opportunities for questions will be provided.

Participants will receive

- Two 90-minute live and interactive webinars and their recordings
- Looking Glass Companion Guide and Scoring Sheets
- Case study answer keys and individual reports
- A digital certificate of completion signed by all three instructors
- For those who submit their cases and achieve an overall score of 80%, a uniquely coded email badge for your email signature line
- Personalized feedback on your scored case studies
